

UNDERGRAD GOALS

How to set yourself apart, add to your resume and gain valuable experience

Student organization officer or chair position
Professional organization student leadership role
Engineering council member or leader
Project lead for capstone or other group projects
Non-engineering organization leader
Become an orientation leader

LEADERSHIP

SERVICE

Judge awards or competitions for engineering organizations
Volunteer at an engineering conference
Volunteer at an outreach event through your university or other STEM organizations
Volunteer on a planning committee for any of the above
Serve as a mentor

Find a (an):
Internship
Research Experience for Undergrads (through NSF)
On campus research experience
On-campus or part time job
Become a grader or a TA
Give a presentation or write a paper about your research

EXPERIENCE

SKILLS

Use the skills you learned in class to do an extra project with a result you can communicate
Take an extra class, workshop or bootcamp
Get certified in a skill related to your field of study
Learn how to use new tools, software or project management styles

University scholarships
Scholarships through student and professional organizations
Awards through student and professional organizations
Awards at work (employee of the month etc)
Design competitions

AWARDS